

Announcing West Coast Poverty Center DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIPS for 2009-10

The West Coast Poverty Center invites applications for its 2009-10 Dissertation Fellowships.

This program supports outstanding research on poverty, poverty-related issues, and anti-poverty policy in the U.S. by doctoral students at the University of Washington. Quantitative, qualitative, or mixed-method approaches are welcome as are submissions from scholars in any discipline.

Award: The Center will award one quarter of support for up to three doctoral students. Awards may be taken during the Winter, Spring or Summer 2010 quarters.

Eligibility: Applicants must be Ph.D. students in good standing at the University of Washington. Applicants must have advanced to candidacy and have an approved dissertation plan at the start of the funding period. Priority will be given to applicants finishing their dissertations within 12 months of the start of funding.

Applications due Friday June 5, 2009, 5:00 p.m.

THE COMPLETE CALL FOR PROPOSALS
may be downloaded from: wcpc.washington.edu

For further information contact:

West Coast Poverty Center
University of Washington / Social Work Building, Room 101 & 102 / Box 354900
(206) 616-2858 / wcpc@u.washington.edu
Awards are contingent on continued WCPC funding